

Membership Application Form

People who support the aims and objectives of The Deaf Society of NSW are able to apply for membership to the organisation.

Members receive information from the Deaf Society throughout the year and have the opportunity to influence the direction of the organisation by voting for changes to the Constitution and for election to the Board of Directors.

Steps to becoming a member

- You need to submit an application form and pay a membership fee of $10.00 (which needs to be paid when you apply).
- The application will be given to the Board of Directors, who will decide whether or not to accept your application.
- The Deaf Society will contact you to tell you if your membership application has been accepted.
- If your application is refused by the Board, your membership fee of $10.00 will be refunded to you.

You will need to read the Constitution of The Deaf Society of New South Wales before applying. If a copy was not provided to you with this application form, please either contact us by:

- telephone (voice) on (02) 9893 8555
- TTY on (02) 9893 8858
- email to info@deafsociety.com or download a copy from our website (<http://www.deafsocietynsw.org.au/pdfs/Constitution.pdf>).
