

Deaf Society of NSW

Client/Student Code of Conduct

The following Code of Conduct relates to clients and students – deaf and hearing – of all Deaf Society of NSW (DSNSW) services.

Clients/students will:

Be honest (e.g. no plagiarism, no breach of copyright, no supplying of false information)

Respect others, including teachers, interpreters, staff, other clients/students and visitors (this includes not intimidating or discriminating against anyone)

Keep DSNSW premises (rooms, offices, classrooms, venues for events, etc.) clean, safe, smoke-free, drug-free and alcohol-free

Commit to their studies/programs (e.g. keep appointments, use class time well, complete tasks, be organised)

Not disrupt programs, events or courses

Not represent the views of DSNSW to other people, organisations or the media without approval from the Chief Executive Officer

Not solicit for money on DSNSW premises or at DSNSW events without approval from the Chief Executive Officer

Follow the law

Follow DSNSW rules (policies and procedures)

Follow all reasonable directions from DSNSW staff