Auslan Skills for Families

8, 15, 22, 29 May 2010 (Saturdays) 9:30am to 12:30pm

- Do you have a child who is Deaf or hard of hearing (hearing-impaired)?
- Would you like to meet other Deaf people?
- Would you like to find out more about Auslan and improve your Auslan skills?

Who can come?

Parents, guardians and siblings (aged 14 years and 9 months upwards only) get first preference. We may also be able to provide places to other family members.

If your child is under school age and/or in a signing program or school, you will get first preference. If your child is in an oral program or school, you are still very welcome to apply but you may be placed on a waiting list.

Families Program

The classes are offered at beginners and intermediate level, depending on demand.

The beginners' level is for people without any background in signing and will be taught by a hearing teacher.

The intermediate level is for people who have previously learnt some Auslan and will be taught by a deaf teacher.

You will learn Auslan in a friendly environment and meet other parents of deaf children.

Over 4 weeks, you will receive 12 hours of instruction. There will be Guest Speakers each week who will present relevant issues.
