

Midsummer

SYDNEY THEATRE
CO

Where:

Sydney Opera House
Drama Theatre

When:

Thursday 8 March 2012
8:00pm—10:00pm

For our patrons who are deaf and use Auslan, and their companions, tickets are just $55.00 and can be booked by emailing the STC Box Office:

boxoffice@sydneytheatre.com.au

or calling (02) 9250 1777

(transaction fees will apply).

Midsummer (a play with songs) is a joyous rom-com with a touch of the tartan by playwright David Greig and Gordon McIntyre of indie folk-rock group Ballboy. Lawyer Helena and petty criminal Bob are thrown together in dubious circumstances, sharing a drunken one-night-stand. So begins an extraordinary lost weekend of bridge burning, car chases, wedding bust-ups, Japanese rope-bondage gone wrong and self-loathing hangovers.

Beginning as a hit at the 2009 Edinburgh Festival Fringe, Midsummer (a play with songs) has gone on to sell out seasons throughout the UK and internationally. It is performed by the original cast members, the enchanting duo Cora Bissett and Matthew Pidgeon.

Interpreters:

Chevoy Sweeney & Nicole Clark

