

AUSTRALIAN THEATRE OF THE DEAF

2009 PRIMARY SCHOOL PROGRAM

Australian Theatre of the Deaf are excited to be presenting two very different shows for primary school students.

BOOK WORM

NEW SHOW AND ALL NEW BOOKS FOR 2009

This show is a lively, creative and alternative way for young people to appreciate literature. Contemporary children's books are brought to life on stage through visual and expressive storytelling. With lots of audience participation, students will be totally engaged! Contact office for book titles.

"The production and acting were first class. It gave the students an appreciation of what Deaf people go through. Students were engrossed." Teacher, Menindee Central School

TAKE OFF

Grab your passports, put on your seat belts and come with us on a whirl wind tour you'll never forget!! We're off to Spain to see a bullfight, then we zip over to Japan for a bit of sumo wrestling, jump on a dog sled in chilly Iceland, munch on yummy scrummy pizza in Italy and much much more. Take Off aims to support the principles of tolerance and appreciation of cultural differences.

WORKSHOPS

The focus of ATOD's workshops is on being clear and concise with our bodies. The aim is to free up the body to communicate using facial expressions, body language and hands.

The workshops are tailored to meet the needs of different age groups and open the world of non-verbal communication to students.

Grades 3-6 Duration: 1 or more hours.
Cost: $150.00 per hour, Max number: 30 students.
