16th August 2010,

Dear Deaf Society of New South Wales,

Re: Relocation of Launceston Tasdeaf office

Tasdeaf is delighted to announce that its Launceston office will be relocating.

Our new office is at Suite 2/45 Brisbane St, Launceston (between George and Tamar Streets). Tasdeaf would appreciate if you could update your contacts database with our new office address. Please note: all other contact details, including phone numbers, fax and email addresses will remain the same.

Tasdeaf's new Launceston office will open on Monday 23rd of August. Opening hours are 9am to 5pm Mondays to Fridays.

With the move to this central and accessible location in Launceston, Tasdeaf looks forward to delivering high quality services for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Tasmanians who live in the north and northwest of the state. Tasdeaf will also continue to provide important information and education services, such as training in Auslan (Australian Sign Language), for local community groups, organisations and interested members of the community.

If you have any queries about Tasdeaf services, please do not hesitate to contact Rachel Kelly on (03) 6331 9766 or email rachel.k@tasdeaf.org.au.

Kind regards,

Rachel Kelly
Administration Officer
Tasdeaf, Launceston
